CABLE BRIDGE-DURGAM CHERUVU

The Durgam Cheruvu Bridge is a beautiful cable bridge stretching between Jubilee Hills and the Financial District. It is the longest bridge in Hyderabad and perfect for a night drive when the bridge lights up brilliantly.

The bridge is adorned with walking and cycling ramps as well. This allows visitors to stop and look out over the Durgam Cheruvu lake which acts as its namesake. It is located near the Inorbit Mall in Madhapur which is a popular shopping destination as well.

QUTUB SHAHI TOMBS

The Qutb Shahi Tombs are situated in the Ibrahim Bagh close to the celebrated Golconda Fort in Hyderabad, India. They contain the tombs and mosques worked by the different lords of the Qutb Shahi line. The arches were usually covered with blue and green tiles, of which just a couple of pieces currently remain.

It's the founding history that makes the Qutb Shahi Tombs, also known as Seven Tombs, so interesting. Located near Golconda Fort, Seven Tombs is the resting place for the seven original Sultans of Hyderabad (also called Deccan or Golconda).

SHILPARAMAM

Shilparamam is an arts and crafts village located in Madhapur, Hyderabad, Telangana, India. The village was conceived with an idea to create an environment for the preservation of traditional Indian crafts. There are ethnic festivals round the year. The rural museum, surrounded by trees, is a miniature depiction of typical Indian village. It provides a window to rural life for city dwellers and those who have never visited a village before.

The sculpture park here is the first of its kind in India. Besides buying some wooden crafts you can also go boating here. There are pedal boats inside the Shilparamam which have attractive designs.
